“Resilient Companions” (watercolor)

Connecticut Regional Scholastic Silver Key Art Award (2024)

Summary of work: This is a watercolor painting of a young girl and her companion, a dog during a flood. They are rowing away from their once home, trying to escape this flood.

“Metamorphosis” (fashion design)

Connecticut Regional Scholastic Silver Key Art Award (2024)

Summary of work: This is a dress made of toilet paper rolls. Just as caterpillars turn into butterflies, we can turn recycling into art.

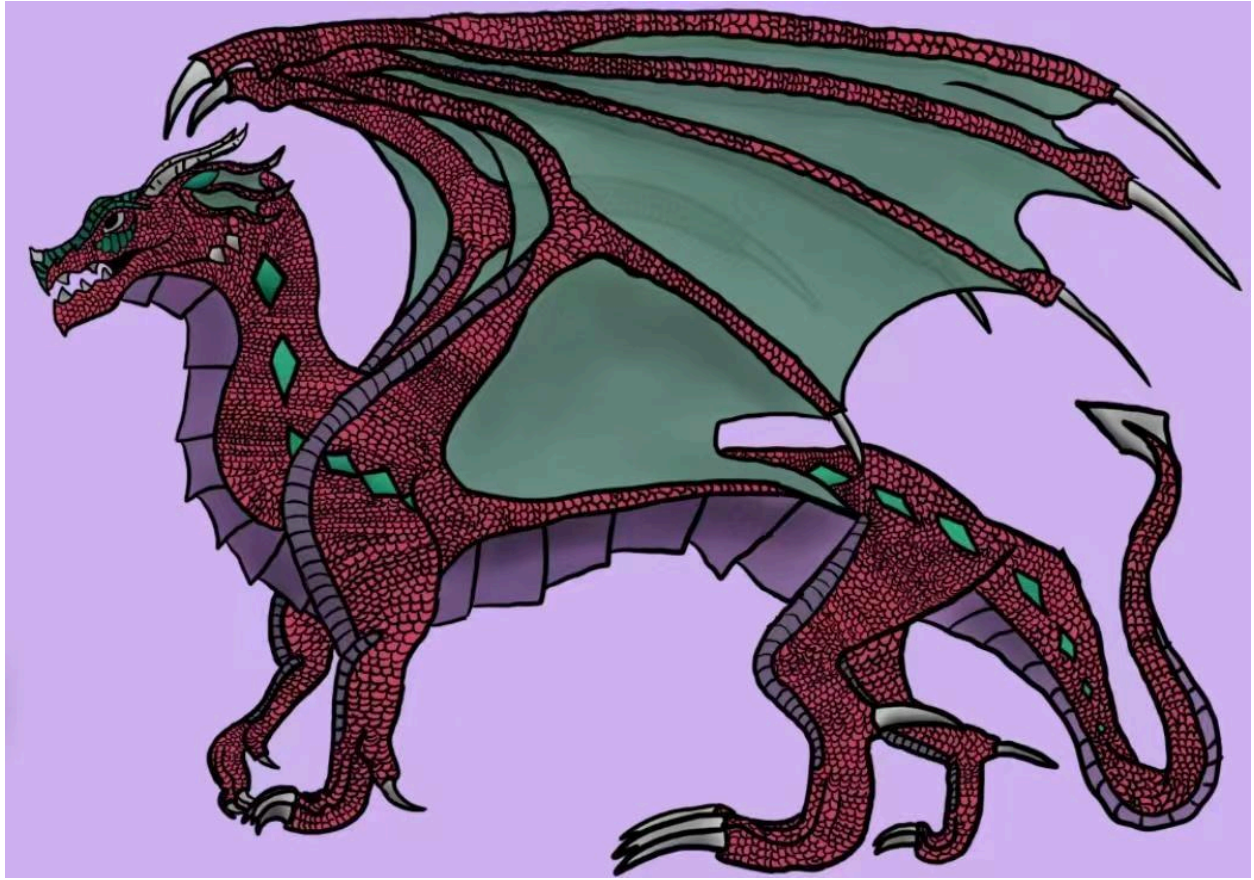

“Silent Woods” (acrylic painting)

Accepted to be published at “Celebrating Art” in 2024

Summary of work: The acrylic painting shows a sad scene of a dying forest. A child sits on a swing hanging from a giant, ancient tree, and the rope looks like it's about to snap. In the background, various animals observe the child with a solemn gaze. The painting aims to make people reflect on how deforestation is hurting nature, especially for future generations.

“Elonia” (digital art)

Summary of work: Elonia, a dragon with red scales and green wings is on her way to Dragonville. Her heart is filled with excitement as she is going to visit her family for the holidays.

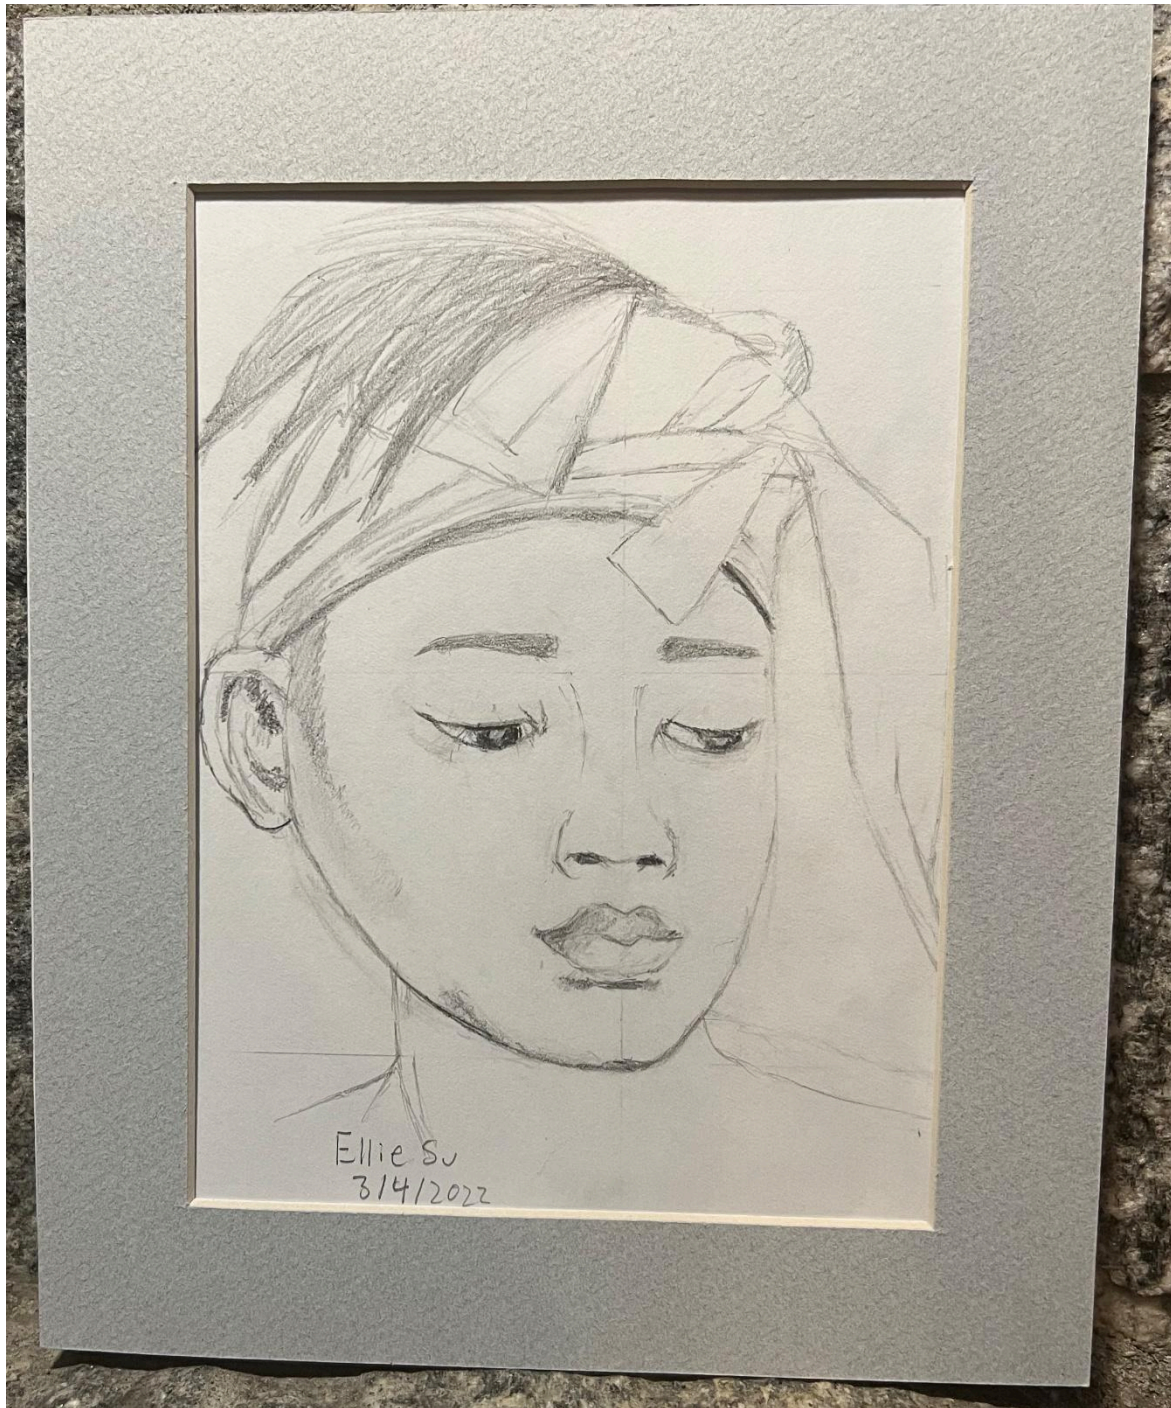

“Scuffoes” (wood burning art)

“Crazy Hair Day” (multimedia)

Boy Portrait (pencil sketch)

Still Life (oil painting)

Christmas Joy (sculpting)
